Jeff Hittle

I have lived in Greenville all my life. Music has always been a part of my life. For the past 20 years, I've been singing. I sang most of those years with the group called Clark Station, from Greenville, where I was joined by my late brother John Crowell and two sisters JoEllen Melling of Greenville and Jennifer Peck of Bradford. I have sung at the Troy Strawberry Festival, The Great Darke County Fair, the Mercer County Fair, and Annie Oakley Days. I'm married to my wife, Cherie, We are both foster parents and we have adopted four boys: Aron, Jonathan, Javon, and Matthew. I sing a lot of older country from George Jones, Merle Haggard, Brooks & Dunn, and occasionally some newer country music from Luke Bryan. Hope to see you all at the Bradford Pumpkin Show.
